

PIPELINES

NASHVILLE CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

JUNE 2022

DEAN'S CORNER

I hope this issue of Pipeline reaches you as you are healthy, comfortable, and relaxed coming out of the past two years. I knew it wouldn't be a normal season as we began 2021-2022 season. We intentionally planned events focused on important aspects of our chapter based on what was needed, and I am proud to say we accomplished many of our goals. How ironic it was that I had to miss our very last event due to COVID, but it also was very representative of where we are as a community.

I cannot thank our Executive Team and our program team enough for this past season: being flexible, supportive, open, and communicative. Our program team members Peter Rogahn, Julia Callaway, and Melissa Emerson were so easy and fun to work with planning the "unknown" season. I also must thank many people behind the scenes working with us when we were challenged by unforeseen changes. Kristen Hansen, Joel Bolen, and our February Flourish Team led by Marsha Scheusner must be all mentioned, and also Gayle Sullivan and Belmont UMC for working with so many changes we faced in the spring of 2022. I am sure I am forgetting some people who should be thanked, and I apologize in advance. This is a sign of our many members who bring their dedication to make our chapter what it is.

I am so excited for our upcoming season, which is listed in this Pipelines, so please mark your calendars! I thank Jared Wilson, our incoming dean, and wish him quick and full recovery, as I ask all our chapter members to send him our prayers of healing and comfort.

I am grateful for what we have achieved in this season. Thank you all for your support, and I look forward to seeing you after this summer.

Sincerely,

Woosug Kang
