NASHVILLE CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN GUILD OF ORGANISTS

OCTOBER, 2014

DEAN'S LETTER

Dear Nashville Colleagues,

One of the many privileges of being part of a large and diverse AGO Chapter is the wealth of talent embodied in our membership. This was on full display at our September Members' Recital at Covenant Presbyterian Church. Bravo Marsha Scheusner, Hildegard Cox, Nick Bergin, Gregg Bunn, Dawn Seidenschwarz, Thomas Russell, Elizabeth Smith, and Josh Coble! Our many thanks for the splendid concert to open our program year.

Another privilege we enjoy as a chapter is the depth of knowledge and experience within our membership we can draw on for programing. Enter Dr. Wilma Jensen, our Education Committee Chairperson, outstanding recitalist, church musician, and teacher. Wonder Woman Wilma, the Betty White of the Organ World, seems always to be in motion, never without a project. Her latest is a compilation of choral anthems she has found to be, "accessible, attractive, and appealing," her AAA Choral Repertoire list.

In an introduction to the list Wilma writes, "I have found these to be effective musically and textually in worship, both for the choir and congregation. They do not necessarily represent music of all historic periods, or perhaps even enough variety between expressive and rhythmic styles. However, they have remained favorite anthems of mine and of my choirs, and I wanted to share them in case you might find them useful with your own choirs."

Wilma will present a selection from her AAA Choral Repertoire list in a reading session for our October 6 program at Brentwood United Methodist Church. Our Chapter dinner and meeting will begin at 6:30 PM, followed by the choral reading session at 7:30 PM. All music on the list will be available for sale through Lois Fyfe Music, either as individual titles or the complete reading packet. Running concurrently with Wilma's session will be the New & Used Organ Music Sale, which will be open from 6:00–6:30 PM and following dinner until 9:00 PM. All proceeds of used organ music sales will go to the benefit of our Nashville Chapter. I hope you will join me in this evening of fellowship, education, and discovery. All events will take place downstairs: Music sale will be in the Parlor, the area below the Narthex accessible by staircase or elevator. Dinner will be in the Singles Ministry area (large room adjacent to the Parlor), and choral reading session will be in the Adult Choir Room.

One final invitation, and I'm channeling Rick Steves of the popular PBS series, Rick Steves' Europe. As you enter the vast narthex of Brentwood UMC, ascend the grand staircase (or take the elevator) to the second tier balcony. There along the circular wall you will find a display of the late Belorussian-born French modernist artist Marc Chagall. Widely regarded as one of the most successful artists of the 20th century—whose paintings include the ceiling of the Palais Garnier (Opéra national de Paris)—these lithographs, which are part of his Bible Suite, each depict a scene from the Old Testament. This is a wonderful treasure, and I hope you will take the opportunity to experience it while at Brentwood.

Looking forward to seeing you all soon!

Dean
